Annotations

Item 1. Adoption of the agenda and other organizational matters

1. In accordance with rule 13 of the rules of procedure of the Economic and Social Council and General Assembly resolution 45/264, the Council is to adopt the agenda for the session.

2. In accordance with its decision 1992/219 on the reconvening of the resumed organizational session for 1992 of the Economic and Social Council, the Council will consider and decide on the regional allocation of seats in the three subsidiary bodies that the General Assembly, in its resolution 46/235, had requested it to establish - namely, the Commission on Science and Technology for Development, the Committee on Natural Resources and the Committee on New and Renewable Sources of Energy and on Energy for Development.

3. Also in accordance with its decision 1992/219, the Council will consider subjects that merit its urgent consideration, referred to it by its other subsidiary bodies.

Item 2. Human rights questions

4. At its resumed organizational session for 1992, the Economic and Social Council considered Commission on Human Rights decision 1992/117, entitled "Approval by the Economic and Social Council of decisions of the Commission", which was before the Council in document E/1992/37. The Council then decided, as an exceptional measure, to reconvene its resumed organizational session to consider and decide on provisional administrative measures related to the mandates adopted by the Commission on Human Rights at its forty-eighth session, which would apply on a temporary basis until the Council had taken a formal decision on those mandates at its substantive session of 1992; it also decided that the provisional administrative arrangements decided upon at its resumed organizational session to facilitate the activities of the special rapporteurs/representatives and working groups would be automatically terminated if their corresponding mandates were not confirmed by the Council at its substantive session of 1992 (decision 1992/219).
